

Concorso internazionale di esecuzione musicale per Clarinetto

Giacomo Mensi
9° edizione

GENERAL RULES

- 1) The Association “Musica in Valle Camonica”, in collaboration with the Town of Breno (Brescia) and Mensi's Family calls the 9th edition of the international performing competition for clarinet “Giacomo Mensi” , in order to nurture the talent of the young musicians
- 2) The competition is aimed at Italian and Foreign contestants of either sex
- 3) The Contest is divided into two sections:
 - Cat. “Excellence” (without age limits)
 - Cat. “Young Promises” (sec. A up to 14 years; sec. B up to 18 years).
- 4) The candidate may choose to take part in a superior category, but not in a lower
- 5) The Contest provides for the presence of an Honour Committee, composed of personalities from the cultural, socio-political and economic society, aimed both at give prominence to the Contest and stand surety for it.
- 6) The technical organization, the programmatic advice, the monitoring and the supervision of the Contest , is handled by a Technical Committe composed of professionals, coordinated by the Artistic Director.
- 7) The Jury is composed by Musicians of high reputation, whose judgement will be final.
- 8) The competition, open to the public, will take place in Breno (Brescia) in the “Centro S.Siro” (next to the Duomo) from the 30th of May to the 1st of June, 2015.

All the contestants will have to present themselves with their identity card in the day and hour that will be communicated to them.

- 9) Those candidates who do not arrive on time at the competition will be automatically eliminated. Nevertheless, on condition that the delay is irrefutably due to circumstances beyond their own control, they will not be excluded, as long as the audition of their category has not been completed yet. In such case, they may be admitted to perform according to the unquestionable judgment of the Technical Committee.

- 10) The candidates presentation order for the auditions of Category Excellence will be defined by an extraction which will be held at the presence of the candidates before the beginning of all the stages of the Contest
- 11) The candidates presentation order for the auditions of Category Young Promises will be held in alphabetic order (with the beginning from the letter which will be extracted at the presence of the candidates before the beginning of all the stages of the Contest).
- 12) The candidates presentation order for the auditions of the semifinal stage will be defined by extraction.
- 13) The Jury is able to stop the performances of the trial at any moment or do some other trials.
- 14) The Jury has the unquestionable authority not to award one or all prizes if the artistic level the candidates will turn out to be unsatisfactory.
- 15) The Jury may recommend those candidates who have particularly distinguished themselves for the high quality of their performances.
- 16) Those members of the Jury who were or have been the candidates' Maestri (in the past two years prior to the competition) and/or their relatives (within the 4° degree), must immediately inform (issuing a writing statement) the Technical Committee. For the Young Promises Categories (both A and B) the juror will refrain from voting when it comes to the judgment and assessment of their pupils or relatives. For the Excellence Category will intervene the Technical Committee (at the end of each stage and before the proclamation): the names of the candidates will be assigned with the number of execution, then the vote of the juror will be taken away and replaced with the arithmetic mean of the vote of the other jurors.
- 17) The first classed of each Section will not be able to stand as a candidate again in the same Section.
- 18) The candidates will have to perform the below listed program:
